Two Opportunities to Learn How to Grow Your Business

Business Round Table

Back by popular demand, the round table forum is an opportunity for you to exchange business solutions with your fellow NCAC members. Topics will be determined by attendees onsite. Bring your experience and your questions and get ready to walk away with new ideas.

Seminar: Dealing with the Challenge of Finding and Keeping Talent in Today's World

Speaker: Mike Haberman, SHRM-SCP, SPHR, Omega HR Solutions, Inc.

Join HR consultant Mike Haberman in a discussion on the challenges you are facing in finding and keeping talent. Mike has an extensive background in HR including consulting for small to mid-sized companies, teaching and serving as a writer and thought leader in his industry. He has a BA in Psychology, a Master's of Science in Industrial Relations and holds a senior professional designation in his field.

At the conclusion of this presentation, attendees will be able to:

1. Identify the top road blocks to finding needed talent for their organization.
2. Determine if they have the building blocks in place to effectively recruit new talent.
3. Understand the importance of having a good onboarding process to effectively connect with new hires.
